JOTTINGS

Greetings! After a three months' rest from jesting and jousting, this department resumes activity-- Our first thought, of course, is the campaign-- But we must be non-partisan!-- The Socialists should have their share of this verbal pum-ishment-- The Communists must not be left out-- We are perhaps too pun-ctilious in pum-ctuating our paragraphs with pum-gent epigrams of the above pum-ctimello character - 66

Twenty-four hundred members of Church of the Brethren have signed a statement declaring war contrary to the Christian religion-- Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis have come out for the re-election of President Roosevelt-- Governor Earle, John L. Lewis, and Rev. Gerald Smith, are the presidential candidates now being named for 1940-- Mr. Roosevelt once called "Al" Smith the "happy warrior." Suppose now that the President might call him the peevish pirate-- Belgium doesn't propose to play the catspaw again for France and England-- Devaluation, like Mesopotamia, is a grand word - - - - 86

It may be said of Father Coughlin, as of Charles II, "Nothing became him like his taking off"-- A campaign circular called Governor Landon "the American Hitler."-- First prize for understatement in 1936 awarded to the New York Herald-Tribune-- So it is now libelous to call a man a "politician," and a newspaper must protect itself by that useful word "alleged,"-- ". . .Mussolini's ambitions in southeastern Europe might easily bring him into conflict with Germany." - 105

"Soviets Ban Opera Deriding Religion"-- The Republicans have lost their place on the official ballot in Florida-- "The Spanish Cavalier," we have been looking for him in the present war in Spain-- There was a time when kings could have any woman they wanted-- The record of German universities under the Nazis is significant-- At last we have discovered a reason for the vast naval expenditures of our government; the navy is needed by Hollywood - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - 125

League of Nations has announced that for every 59 men under arms in 1913, there are no fewer than 76 men now under arms-- With one of Mr. Roosevelt's sons engaged to marry a Du Pont, and another son and a son-in-law working for Hearst, things look somewhat different since the election, don't they?-- Dr. Sarga of Paris fights nine duels in vengeance-- Political parties in the late presidential campaign spent a total of more than $13,000,000; if a total of not more than $13 had been spent, result would have been the same-- Spanish rebels are being denounced for bringing Moors into Spain to fight and kill the enemy-- This is a war-like world, indeed- 146

Additional famous dead-- Lloyd George deplores to his late king the "shabby" way in which the king was treated by his ministers-- Reno last year had two-and-a-half times as many marriages as divorces-- "Berle sees war threat" is headline in New York Times; miraculously acute eyesight!-- Spain is the latest acid test to show how superficial is the pacifism of many of our pacifists-- At last we have secured recognition, renown; yes, this fall our picture was displayed in a photographer's window- - - 185

Hitler's Spanish policy is likely to shrink world sympathy for the German cause, surmises news commentator-- Sit-down strike in America compared with Gandhi's sit-down demonstrations in India-- Trotsky must feel like Philip Nolan, "the man without a country," or has he found a country in Mexico?-- To what extent is casual slaughter of human beings in our machine civilization so lowering popular sensibilities as to make murder easy?-- "Commodity prices continue strong"-- Scientists have discovered that Scotland is drifting westward - 206

Gandhi has repudiated his title of "Mahatma"-- Ministerial friend tells us that he is not a "pacifist" but a "pacigerent,"-- Football Coach Dana X Bible called to the University of Texas at salary of $15,000-- "Every house can have a gas-proof room"-- Two contrasting statements of automobile accidents-- Renewed and impressive evidence that the biblical story of the Flood must indeed be true - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - 225
